

Weather and Clothes - Complete Lesson

A1 · Ages 5-7 · 45 min · Listening · + Vocabulary

Overview

Learning objective: Identify sun and rain and name a shirt, shoes and a hat; choose a sun hat for shade and shoes to cover feet.

Main skill: Listening

Secondary skill: Vocabulary

Duration: 45 minutes

Class size: 20 students

Group work: Groups of 2

Success criteria

- Identify at least four of the five taught words.
- Complete the short task using the target language.
- Take a turn and respond to a partner.

Materials needed

- Student worksheets A and B with reading and listening questions; teacher answer keys.
- Five included picture flashcards; paper and pencils.
- Board and marker. Listening is delivered by the teacher.

Teacher preparation

- Read the two scripts and check the teacher keys before teaching.
- Print one selected worksheet version per learner; keep teacher copies separate.
- Print the included picture-front and word-back cards from the PowerPoint.
- Do not equate a normal shirt or sun hat with waterproof clothing. Accept different sensible clothing choices when the question is open.

Key language

- sun
- rain
- shirt
- shoes

- hat
- I see the ____.
- I wear a ____.
- I wear shoes on my feet.

Lesson plan - 45 minutes

4 min - Connect and set the goal

Teacher: Use the supplied picture cards to elicit familiar words. Read the goal aloud.

Students: Point to a familiar picture and try its name.

Materials: Opening slide or printed opening card

Purpose: Activate prior knowledge without testing unfamiliar language.

6 min - Teach the five key words

Teacher: Show each supplied picture, say the word and model its example. Check meaning with pointing.

Students: Listen, repeat, point and complete Section A orally.

Materials: Vocabulary cards; worksheet Section A

Purpose: Vocabulary supports the main listening task.

6 min - Read for meaning

Teacher: Read the short story aloud while children follow. Read each question aloud and accept pointing or short spoken answers.

Students: Follow the story and give short spoken answers.

Materials: Reading passage and four questions, supplied in the worksheet

Purpose: Establish a shared context and check literal understanding before interpretation.

7 min - Listen for a change or decision

Teacher: Read the supplied listening script twice. First check the main situation; then read the three questions and repeat for details.

Students: Listen and say or circle the answer.

Materials: Supplied listening script and questions

Purpose: Practice listening with information that differs from the reading.

8 min - Guided language practice

Teacher: Use Version A Sections B and C. Model one response, then let pairs work. Keep Version B for a later lesson, reassessment or fast finishers. For children, Sections D and E are optional additional practice.

Students: Say answers before writing; complete the selected items with a partner.

Materials: Worksheet A; sentence frames; optional worksheet B

Purpose: Move from recognition to usable language.

10 min - Pack for a walk

Teacher: Arrange groups of 2. Read the supplied role or situation cards and assign roles. Model a short exchange and let learners switch roles. Monitor using the assessment criteria.

Students: Take turns using the cards and the target phrases.

Materials: All situation cards appear under Activities and on the student slides

Purpose: Demonstrate the objective through a purposeful exchange.

4 min - Exit check and next step

Teacher: Use the three exit prompts. Record which part of the objective needs another model. Explain the short homework; use the separate assessment later if needed.

Students: Give a short spoken response and show a picture where helpful.

Materials: Exit ticket and homework instructions

Purpose: Check individual progress after supported group work.

Classroom activity - Pack for a walk

Objective: Identify sun and rain and name a shirt, shoes and a hat; choose a sun hat for shade and shoes to cover feet.

Time: 10 minutes

Grouping: Groups of 2

Materials: A sunny walk: choose a picture that shades your head.

Getting dressed: choose a picture for your feet.

Rain starts: decide where to wait safely.

Teacher instructions

- Use the exact situation cards below; no additional resource is needed.
- Form groups of 2 and model one short response.
- Allow 5 minutes for preparation and practice; use the remaining time for responses and feedback.
- One point each: identifies four of the five key words; completes the requested exchange or choice; responds intelligibly to a partner. Two points suggest useful progress; revisit the missing criterion. Writing accuracy is not the main goal.

Student instructions

- A sunny walk: choose a picture that shades your head.

- Getting dressed: choose a picture for your feet.

- Rain starts: decide where to wait safely.

Example: It is sunny. I take my hat. I wear shoes. When it rains, I go inside.

Variation: Swap roles and repeat with a different picture.

Homework

Continue the learning

Use the lesson materials. No additional purchase or research is required.

- Draw yourself ready for a sunny walk.

- Point to your drawing and say hat, shirt and shoes. An adult may listen, but writing is optional.

Estimated time: 5-10 minutes

Exit ticket - 4 min

- Name something you wear on your head.

- What can shade your head in the sun?

- Say one word you can use now.

Success looks like: One point each: identifies four of the five key words; completes the requested exchange or choice; responds intelligibly to a partner. Two points suggest useful progress; revisit the missing criterion. Writing accuracy is not the main goal.

Teacher notes

- One point each: identifies four of the five key words; completes the requested exchange or choice; responds intelligibly to a partner. Two points suggest useful progress; revisit the missing criterion. Writing accuracy is not the main goal.

- Reading and listening tell different stories. Keep their keys separate.

- Student slides include tasks and language models. Facilitation notes and transcript answers belong in the separate teacher documents.

Hello! My name is Leo. I look outside. I see the sun. It is a nice day. I want to go for a walk. First, I put on my shirt. My shirt is green. I like my green shirt. Next, I put on my shoes. My shoes are brown. I put one shoe on each foot. Now I look for my hat. Where is my hat? Here it is! My hat is yellow. I put it on my head. The hat gives my head some shade.

I walk with my mom. We see a small bird. We stop and look at the bird. Then we look up. We see clouds. Now we see rain. We go inside. My yellow hat is a sun hat. It does not keep the rain away. We sit together and wait. I take off my shoes. I put my hat on a chair. After a little time, the rain stops. I look outside again. I can see the sun! I smile at my mom. We can take our walk now.

Assessment guidance

One point each: identifies four of the five key words; completes the requested exchange or choice; responds intelligibly to a partner. Two points suggest useful progress; revisit the missing criterion. Writing accuracy is not the main goal.

Support

Move from pointing to a single word, then to a short phrase.

Sentence frames

- I see the ____.
- I wear a ____.
- I wear shoes on my feet.

Word bank

- sun
- rain
- shirt
- shoes
- hat

Worked examples

- It is sunny. I take my hat. I wear shoes. When it rains, I go inside.

Smaller steps

- Point to the relevant picture.
- Hear and repeat the word.
- Complete one frame with a partner.

Guided practice

- I see the ____ in the sky. It is bright. Model: sun
- Name something you wear on your head. Model: A hat.

Challenge

Extend the same objective with less scaffolding and more independent explanation.

- Say two clothing words in one sentence.
- Explain with words or gestures why a sun hat is useful.
- Can you make a different sentence with one of today's words?

Pacing: the package includes more practice than one class needs.

Teach the selected Version A tasks and keep Version B, extension work and the independent assessment for follow-up.

Sensitive or misleading assumptions.

Do not equate a normal shirt or sun hat with waterproof clothing. Accept different sensible clothing choices when the question is open.

Presentation - teaching notes
