

Teen Life and Free Time - Complete Lesson

B1 · Ages 13-15 · 60 min · Speaking · + Vocabulary

Overview

Learning objective: Compare two free-time activities and explain a preference with at least two reasons, then respond to a different view.

Main skill: Speaking

Secondary skill: Vocabulary

Duration: 60 minutes

Class size: 20 students

Group work: Groups of 2

Success criteria

- State a clear response that meets the task.
- Use specific details from the supplied material.
- Respond to another view and recognize an appropriate limitation.

Materials needed

- Student worksheets A and B with reading and listening questions; teacher answer keys.
 - Supplied case and situation cards; paper and pens.
 - Board and marker. Listening is delivered by the teacher.

Teacher preparation

- Read the two scripts and check the teacher keys before teaching.
- Print one selected worksheet version per learner; keep teacher copies separate.
- Prepare the supplied role cards. No outside article or paid material is needed.
- Offer fictional preferences so nobody must disclose personal schedules, money or athletic ability. Avoid ranking hobbies by gender.

Key language

- hobby
 - relax
 - practice
 - prefer

- challenge
- I prefer ____ to ____ because ____.
- Both activities ____, but only ____.
- I see your point; however, ____.

Lesson plan - 60 minutes

5 min - Connect and set the goal

Teacher: Invite an initial view on the case, then state the objective and distinguish the fictional scenario from factual research.

Students: State an initial view and one question you want the case to answer.

Materials: Opening slide or printed opening card

Purpose: Activate prior knowledge without testing unfamiliar language.

8 min - Teach the five key words

Teacher: Model the five terms using their definitions and examples. Ask learners to explain a distinction in their own words.

Students: Complete Section A and compare meanings with a partner.

Materials: Vocabulary cards; worksheet Section A

Purpose: Vocabulary supports the main speaking task.

10 min - Read for meaning

Teacher: Give a first reading for the main situation, followed by the four evidence questions. Clarify only vocabulary essential to meaning.

Students: Read the passage, answer the questions and locate the supporting words.

Materials: Reading passage and four questions, supplied in the worksheet

Purpose: Establish a shared context and check literal understanding before interpretation.

8 min - Listen for a change or decision

Teacher: Read the supplied listening script twice. First check the main situation; then read the three questions and repeat for details.

Students: Identify the main situation, then answer the three detail questions and compare evidence.

Materials: Supplied listening script and questions

Purpose: Practice listening with information that differs from the reading.

10 min - Guided language practice

Teacher: Use Version A Sections B and C. Model one response, then let pairs work. Keep Version B for a later lesson, reassessment or fast finishers. For children, Sections D and E are optional additional practice.

Students: Apply the sentence frames, then respond to the five application prompts.

Materials: Worksheet A; sentence frames; optional worksheet B

Purpose: Move from recognition to usable language.

15 min - Design our Friday club

Teacher: Arrange groups of 2. Read the supplied role or situation cards and assign roles. Require a choice, supporting reasons and a response to another view. Monitor using the assessment criteria.

Students: Complete the group task, present your decision and respond to one question.

Materials: All situation cards appear under Activities and on the student slides

Purpose: Demonstrate the objective through a purposeful exchange.

4 min - Exit check and next step

Teacher: Use the three exit prompts. Record which part of the objective needs another model. Explain the short homework; use the separate assessment later if needed.

Students: Give an independent response and identify one point to improve.

Materials: Exit ticket and homework instructions

Purpose: Check individual progress after supported group work.

Classroom activity - Design our Friday club

Objective: Compare two free-time activities and explain a preference with at least two reasons, then respond to a different view.

Time: 15 minutes

Grouping: Groups of 2

Materials: Choice 1: Art. Shared supplies; quiet room; individual or paired work.

Choice 2: Running. Small groups; personal pace; covered space if it rains.

Decision: Choose a club trial for your group. Give two reasons and one reason another group might choose differently.

Teacher instructions

- Use the exact situation cards below; no additional resource is needed.
- Form groups of 2 and model one short response.
- Allow 10 minutes for preparation and practice; use the remaining time for responses and feedback.

- Score each criterion 0-2: a clear response; two relevant reasons or details; an appropriate response to another view. 4/6 indicates the task is substantially met. These are task rubrics, not formal CEFR certification.

Student instructions

- Choice 1: Art. Shared supplies; quiet room; individual or paired work.
- Choice 2: Running. Small groups; personal pace; covered space if it rains.
- Decision: Choose a club trial for your group. Give two reasons and one reason another group might choose differently.

Example: We prefer art because it is quiet and everyone can use shared supplies. Running is more active, so another group might prefer it. We could try running next month.

Variation: Exchange recommendations with another group and write one constructive challenge.

Homework

Continue the learning

Use the lesson materials. No additional purchase or research is required.

- Write 90-110 words comparing two hobbies.
- Use prefer, because and one comparison; include a different possible opinion.

Estimated time: 10-15 minutes

Exit ticket - 4 min

- Compare art and running using one similarity.
 - Ask a follow-up question about a partner's hobby.
 - Name one point you would improve in your response.

Success looks like: Score each criterion 0-2: a clear response; two relevant reasons or details; an appropriate response to another view. 4/6 indicates the task is substantially met. These are task rubrics, not formal CEFR certification.

Teacher notes

- Score each criterion 0-2: a clear response; two relevant reasons or details; an appropriate response to another view. 4/6 indicates the task is substantially met. These are task rubrics, not formal CEFR certification.
 - Reading and listening tell different stories. Keep their keys separate.
 - Student slides include tasks and language models. Facilitation notes and transcript answers belong in the separate teacher documents.

Student worksheet - Version A

Name: _____ Class: _____ Date: _____

Complete the sections your teacher assigns. Use the reading and the supplied case details. Version B is an alternative for later practice.

Section A - Meet the key words

Match each definition to a word from the bank.

Word bank

hobby | relax | practice | prefer | challenge

1. An activity you enjoy in your free time.

2. Become calmer after effort or stress.

3. Repeat something to improve.

4. Like one choice more than another.

5. Something difficult that tests your ability.

Reading - Two Ways to Spend Friday

Read the passage and answer the questions.

At a fictional school, students can try one of two Friday clubs. The art club meets in a quiet classroom. Members share pencils and paper, so they do not need to buy supplies. They can draw alone or help a partner. There is no final competition.

The running club meets in the school yard. Students practice in small groups and choose their own pace. It is not a race, but each student sets a personal distance goal. When it rains, the club uses the covered court.

Lina prefers art because drawing helps her relax after a busy week. She also likes making a picture she can keep. Omar prefers running. He enjoys moving after sitting in lessons, and reaching a goal feels like a challenge worth accepting.

Lina thinks running sounds tiring. Omar thinks a quiet room might help him concentrate. They agree to try each other's club once before making a final choice. Neither believes that one hobby is best for everybody.

1. Why do art members not need to buy supplies?

2. What happens to running club when it rains?

3. Give one reason Lina prefers art.

4. How do they keep an open mind?

Section B - Language in use

Respond using language that fits the situation.

1. Complete: I prefer reading ____ watching a film.

2. Join with because: I choose art. It helps me relax.

3. Compare using quieter: Art club / running club.

4. Use both to describe art and running as hobbies.

5. Respond politely: Running is the best hobby for everyone.

Section C - Apply and explain

Give a reason, an example or a case detail when the prompt asks for one.

1. Compare art and running using one similarity.

2. Give one difference supported by the reading.

3. Choose one club and give two reasons.

4. Ask a follow-up question about a partner's hobby.

5. Suggest a compromise for friends with different hobbies.

Listening - Choosing a New Hobby

Listen for meaning, then answer the questions.

1. Why can Maya not join both groups?

- a) They meet on the same day
- b) Both cost too much
- c) Her friends refuse

2. Why did she prefer chess at first?

- a) She knew someone in the group
- b) She disliked movement
- c) She had won a tournament

3. What are her main reasons for choosing dance?

- a) Movement and meeting new people
- b) Winning prizes and traveling
- c) Being alone and saving money

Student worksheet - Version B

Name: _____ Class: _____ Date: _____

Complete the sections your teacher assigns. Use the reading and the supplied case details. Version B is an alternative for later practice.

Section A - Use the key words

Write a sentence that shows each word's meaning.

Word bank

hobby | relax | practice | prefer | challenge

1. Use "hobby" in a sentence about this lesson.

2. Use "relax" in a sentence about this lesson.

3. Use "practice" in a sentence about this lesson.

4. Use "prefer" in a sentence about this lesson.

5. Use "challenge" in a sentence about this lesson.

3. Give one reason Lina prefers art.

4. How do they keep an open mind?

Section B - Language in use

Respond using language that fits the situation.

1. Correct: I prefer dance than chess.

2. Join with although: Chess is difficult. I enjoy it.

3. Compare using more active: Dance / chess.

4. Ask a partner for a reason for their preference.

5. Disagree politely with: Quiet hobbies are boring.

Section C - Apply and explain

Give a reason, an example or a case detail when the prompt asks for one.

1. Compare chess and dance using one similarity.

2. Explain one advantage of joining a new group.

3. Give a reason someone might prefer a quiet hobby.

4. Respond to a partner who prefers a different activity.

5. Give a 45-second recommendation with a limitation.

Teacher answer key

How to run the worksheet

Compare two free-time activities and explain a preference with at least two reasons, then respond to a different view.

Score each criterion 0-2: a clear response; two relevant reasons or details; an appropriate response to another view. 4/6 indicates the task is substantially met. These are task rubrics, not formal CEFR certification.

Group work guidance

Groups of 2; give everyone a speaking or checking role and rotate. Use Version B as alternate practice, not as a second full worksheet in the same session.

Notes: Teacher transcript:

My name is Maya, and I have been thinking about my free time. Last term, I spent most afternoons doing the same things. This term, I want to try something different. My two choices are a chess group and a dance group at school. Both groups meet on Wednesday, so I cannot join both.

I enjoy a challenge, and chess would make me think carefully. My friend says I would need to practice regularly. I like that idea, but I sometimes find it hard to sit still after a full day of lessons. Dance would give me a chance to move. I could also meet people outside my usual class.

At first, I preferred chess because I already knew one person in the group. Then I tried one dance session. I made a few mistakes, but the other students were kind. I felt more relaxed by the end.

I have decided to join dance for this term. My main reasons are movement and meeting new people. I still want to play chess sometimes, perhaps with my friend during a break. Choosing one hobby now does not mean I must give up every other interest forever.

Read the questions aloud for young learners. Replay or reread in short sections if needed.

Assessment answers

1. Compare art and running using one similarity.

Answer: Both take practice and can be enjoyed with other people.

2. Give one difference supported by the reading.

Answer: Art uses a quiet classroom; running uses the yard or covered court.

3. Choose one club and give two reasons.

Answer: Example: I prefer art because it is calm and supplies are shared.

4. Ask a follow-up question about a partner's hobby.

Answer: How often do you practice?

5. Suggest a compromise for friends with different hobbies.

Answer: They could try each other's activities on different days.

Assessment guidance

Score each criterion 0-2: a clear response; two relevant reasons or details; an appropriate response to another view. 4/6 indicates the task is substantially met. These are task rubrics, not formal CEFR certification.

Support

Reduce the number of ideas to compare while keeping the same reasoning goal.

Sentence frames

- I prefer ____ to ____ because ____.
- Both activities ____, but only ____.
- I see your point; however, ____.

Word bank

- hobby
- relax
- practice
- prefer
- challenge

Worked examples

- We prefer art because it is quiet and everyone can use shared supplies. Running is more active, so another group might prefer it. We could try running next month.

Smaller steps

- State the situation in one sentence.
- Select one relevant detail.
- Use a frame to explain the response.
- Add a limitation or another view.

Guided practice

- Complete: I prefer reading ____ watching a film. Model: to
- Compare art and running using one similarity. Model: Both take practice and can be enjoyed with other people.

Challenge

Extend the same objective with less scaffolding and more independent explanation.

- Compare a third hobby without claiming it suits everybody.
- Summarize a partner's reasons before giving your own view.
- Which assumption does your response depend on?
- What evidence or constraint would change your choice?

Pacing: the package includes more practice than one class needs.

Teach the selected Version A tasks and keep Version B, extension work and the independent assessment for follow-up.

Sensitive or misleading assumptions.

Offer fictional preferences so nobody must disclose personal schedules, money or athletic ability. Avoid ranking hobbies by gender.

Presentation - teaching notes

Teacher copy. Keep this guide separate from the student PowerPoint. Slide numbers below refer to the numbered lesson slides; an exported slide may continue over several pages.

1. Teen Life and Free Time

Compare two hobbies, explain a preference, and negotiate a club choice.

Task: What do you already know about this topic?

Teacher note: Allow thinking time, then invite a response. Accept equivalent language that meets the objective.

Purpose: Build toward the stated learning objective.

2. Today's goal

Compare two free-time activities and explain a preference with at least two reasons, then respond to a different view.

Task: Explain the goal in your own words.

Teacher note: Allow thinking time, then invite a response. Accept equivalent language that meets the objective.

Purpose: Build toward the stated learning objective.

3. Look and discuss

Compare the two clubs.

Which would you choose, and why?

Teacher note: Use this picture during the opening discussion. Accept different accurate responses. This is an illustrative scene, not evidence about real people or a substitute for the reading passage.

Purpose: Build toward the stated learning objective.

Visual guidance: Teenagers drawing together in an art room and jogging together outdoors.

4. hobby

hobby: An activity you enjoy in your free time.

Drawing is my favorite hobby.

Task: Use the word in a new example.

Teacher note: Model "hobby" with the supplied example. Check that learners distinguish the definition from an example.

Purpose: Build toward the stated learning objective.

5. relax

relax: Become calmer after effort or stress.

I read to relax.

Task: Use the word in a new example.

Teacher note: Model "relax" with the supplied example. Check that learners distinguish the definition from an example.

Purpose: Build toward the stated learning objective.

6. practice

practice: Repeat something to improve.

I practice guitar twice a week.

Task: Use the word in a new example.

Teacher note: Model "practice" with the supplied example. Check that learners distinguish the definition from an example.

Purpose: Build toward the stated learning objective.

7. prefer

prefer: Like one choice more than another.

I prefer chess to running.

Task: Use the word in a new example.

Teacher note: Model "prefer" with the supplied example. Check that learners distinguish the definition from an example.

Purpose: Build toward the stated learning objective.

8. challenge

challenge: Something difficult that tests your ability.

Learning a new song is a challenge.

Task: Use the word in a new example.

Teacher note: Model "challenge" with the supplied example. Check that learners distinguish the definition from an example.

Purpose: Build toward the stated learning objective.

9. Read and notice

Two Ways to Spend Friday

Task: Why do art members not need to buy supplies?

Teacher note: Use the full reading printed in both worksheet versions. Check the four reading questions against the separate teacher key.

Purpose: Build toward the stated learning objective.

10. Listen for details

Choosing a New Hobby

Task: Listen once for the situation, then again for details.

Teacher note: Use the supplied recording or read the exact script in the separate listening teacher copy. Do not display the transcript during the listening check.

Purpose: Build toward the stated learning objective.

11. Useful language

- I prefer ____ to ____ because ____.

- Both activities ____, but only ____.

- I see your point; however, ____.

Task: Adapt one frame to the situation.

Teacher note: These are language models, not answers to the reading or listening questions.

Purpose: Build toward the stated learning objective.

12. Design our Friday club · 1

Choice 1: Art. Shared supplies; quiet room; individual or paired work.

Task: Discuss your choice and explain your reason.
