

Toys and Play - Complete Lesson

A2 · Ages 8-9 · 45 min · Speaking · + Grammar

Overview

Learning objective: Ask for a specific toy politely and answer a partner using want, have and What is it?

Main skill: Speaking

Secondary skill: Grammar

Duration: 45 minutes

Class size: 20 students

Group work: Groups of 2

Success criteria

- Identify at least four of the five taught words.
- Complete the short task using the target language.
- Take a turn and respond to a partner.

Materials needed

- Student worksheets A and B with reading and listening questions; teacher answer keys.
 - Five included picture flashcards; paper and pencils.
 - Printed materials and the teacher's voice.

Teacher preparation

- Read the two scripts and check the teacher keys before teaching.
- Print one selected worksheet version per learner; keep teacher copies separate.
- Print the included picture-front and word-back cards from the PowerPoint.
- Practice both want and have. Model a polite tone; do not require children to bring or lend personal toys.

Key language

- ball
 - doll
 - car
 - train
 - teddy

- What is it? It is a ____.
- I have a _____. Do you want it?
- I want the _____, please.

Lesson plan - 45 minutes

4 min - Connect and set the goal

Teacher: Use the supplied picture cards to elicit familiar words. Read the goal aloud.

Students: Point to a familiar picture and try its name.

Materials: Opening slide or printed opening card

Purpose: Activate prior knowledge without testing unfamiliar language.

6 min - Teach the five key words

Teacher: Show each supplied picture, say the word and model its example. Check meaning with pointing.

Students: Listen, repeat, point and complete Section A orally.

Materials: Vocabulary cards; worksheet Section A

Purpose: Grammar supports the main speaking task.

6 min - Read for meaning

Teacher: Give a first reading for the main situation, followed by the four evidence questions. Clarify only vocabulary essential to meaning.

Students: Read the passage, answer the questions and locate the supporting words.

Materials: Reading passage and four questions, supplied in the worksheet

Purpose: Establish a shared context and check literal understanding before interpretation.

7 min - Listen for a change or decision

Teacher: Read the supplied listening script twice. First check the main situation; then read the three questions and repeat for details.

Students: Listen and say or circle the answer.

Materials: Supplied listening script and questions

Purpose: Practice listening with information that differs from the reading.

8 min - Guided language practice

Teacher: Use Version A Sections B and C. Model one response, then let pairs work. Keep Version B for a later lesson, reassessment or fast finishers. For children, Sections D and E are optional additional practice.

Students: Say answers before writing; complete the selected items with a partner.

Materials: Worksheet A; sentence frames; optional worksheet B

Purpose: Move from recognition to usable language.

10 min - The toy lending table

Teacher: Arrange groups of 2. Read the supplied role or situation cards and assign roles. Model a short exchange and let learners switch roles. Monitor using the assessment criteria.

Students: Take turns using the cards and the target phrases.

Materials: All situation cards appear under Activities and on the student slides

Purpose: Demonstrate the objective through a purposeful exchange.

4 min - Exit check and next step

Teacher: Use the three exit prompts. Record which part of the objective needs another model. Explain the short homework; use the separate assessment later if needed.

Students: Give a short spoken response and show a picture where helpful.

Materials: Exit ticket and homework instructions

Purpose: Check individual progress after supported group work.

Classroom activity - The toy lending table

Objective: Ask for a specific toy politely and answer a partner using want, have and What is it?

Time: 10 minutes

Grouping: Groups of 2

Materials: Partner A: You have the ball and car. Ask for the teddy.

Partner B: You have the doll and teddy. Ask for the car.

Shared toy: The train belongs to the class. Ask before taking it.

Teacher instructions

- Use the exact situation cards below; no additional resource is needed.
- Form groups of 2 and model one short response.
- Allow 5 minutes for preparation and practice; use the remaining time for responses and feedback.
- One point each: identifies four of the five key words; completes the requested exchange or choice; responds intelligibly to a partner. Two points suggest useful progress; revisit the missing criterion. Writing accuracy is not the main goal.

Student instructions

- Partner A: You have the ball and car. Ask for the teddy.
- Partner B: You have the doll and teddy. Ask for the car.
- Shared toy: The train belongs to the class. Ask before taking it.

Example: A: I want the teddy, please. B: Here you are. A: Thank you. B: Do you have a car? A: Yes. Do you want it?

Variation: Swap roles and repeat with a different picture.

Homework

Continue the learning

Use the lesson materials. No additional purchase or research is required.

- Draw a toy you like.
- Write or say a four-line toy request and response.

Estimated time: 5-10 minutes

Exit ticket - 4 min

- Ask politely for a ball.
 - Offer your teddy to a friend.
 - Say one word you can use now.

Success looks like: One point each: identifies four of the five key words; completes the requested exchange or choice; responds intelligibly to a partner. Two points suggest useful progress; revisit the missing criterion. Writing accuracy is not the main goal.

Teacher notes

- One point each: identifies four of the five key words; completes the requested exchange or choice; responds intelligibly to a partner. Two points suggest useful progress; revisit the missing criterion. Writing accuracy is not the main goal.
 - Reading and listening tell different stories. Keep their keys separate.

Notes: Teacher transcript:

Welcome to our play table. I am Sam. There are five toys here today. I have a red ball and a small blue car. My friend Nina has a doll and a teddy. There is a green train in the middle of the table. The train belongs to our class.

Nina looks at my ball. She says, I want the ball, please. I give her the ball. She says thank you. Then I look at her teddy. What is it? I ask. It is a teddy, she says. Do you want it? Yes, please. I want the teddy. Nina gives it to me. It is soft and brown.

We play together. Nina rolls the ball slowly. I make the teddy wave. Another friend, Alex, comes to the table. He wants the train. He says, Can I have the train, please? We say yes. Alex moves the train around the table.

At the end, we stop playing. Nina gives my ball back. I give her teddy back. Alex puts the train in the class box. We thank each other. Everyone has a turn, and all five toys are safe.

Assessment guidance

One point each: identifies four of the five key words; completes the requested exchange or choice; responds intelligibly to a partner. Two points suggest useful progress; revisit the missing criterion. Writing accuracy is not the main goal.

Support

Move from pointing to a single word, then to a short phrase.

Sentence frames

- What is it? It is a ____.
- I have a _____. Do you want it?
- I want the _____, please.

Word bank

- ball
- doll
- car
- train
- teddy

Worked examples

- A: I want the teddy, please. B: Here you are. A: Thank you. B: Do you have a car? A: Yes. Do you want it?

Smaller steps

- Point to the relevant picture.
- Hear and repeat the word.
- Complete one frame with a partner.

Guided practice

- I ____ a ball. (have / has) Model: have
- Ask politely for a ball. Model: I want the ball, please.

Challenge

Extend the same objective with less scaffolding and more independent explanation.

- Add a color to two requests.
- Keep an exchange going for six turns, then return the toy politely.
- Can you make a different sentence with one of today's words?

Pacing: the package includes more practice than one class needs.

Teach the selected Version A tasks and keep Version B, extension work and the independent assessment for follow-up.

Sensitive or misleading assumptions.

Practice both want and have. Model a polite tone; do not require children to bring or lend personal toys.

Presentation - teaching notes

Teacher copy. Keep this guide separate from the student PowerPoint. Slide numbers below refer to the numbered lesson slides; an exported slide may continue over several pages.
